

Trainings with Peter Bullimore & Company

National Paranoia Network Based in Manchester, England

Peter Bullimore and his colleagues from the National Paranoia Network of England are collaborating with the Wildflower Alliance (formerly Western Mass Recovery Learning Community) to increase availability of trainings in the US. Training rates start at $1500* per day (*sliding scale and prorated rates for partial days available) plus travel/lodging for two trainers. Contact info@wildfloweralliance.org for more details.

Available Training Topics Include (but are not limited to):

Maastricht Interview for Voice Hearing: Learn how to use the Maastricht Interview tool and write reports intended to support voice hearers to explore, make meaning of, and map out their voices. Available in two or three day formats, class limited to 24 participants. Highly interactive!

Working with Paranoia/Unusual Beliefs: Build understanding of the experiences that get called paranoia or unusual beliefs, and explore a variety of support strategies. Available in one or two day formats, no class size limit.

Working with Childhood Trauma: Learn more about what constitutes childhood trauma, the impact it can have on a person throughout their lifespan, and a variety of support strategies. Available in one or two day formats, no class size limit.

Maastricht Interview for Unusual Beliefs/Paranoia: Learn how to use the Maastricht Interview tool and write reports intended to support people experiencing paranoia/unusual beliefs to make meaning of their experiences. Available in two or three day formats, class limited to 24 participants. Highly interactive!

Working with Hearing Voices: Build understanding of hearing voices, and explore a variety of support strategies. Available in one or two day formats, no class size limit.

Peter and his colleagues are also available for shorter workshops, keynote talks, and more! All topics can be tailored to your specific needs.
E-mail us for details!

About Peter Bullimore: Peter is a voice hearer who spent ten years as a psychiatric patient enduring many bouts of what gets called “paranoia” and unusual beliefs. Through learning holistic approaches and with support of the Hearing Voices Network (HVN) he was able to reclaim his life from the system. He facilitates a hearing voices and paranoia support group in Sheffield. He also runs his own training and consultancy agency, Asylum Associates, and is the founding member of the Paranoia Network. His story was featured in the film, ‘There is a Fault in Reality,’ by Tom Cotton, as well as in one of the foundational HVN texts, Living with Voices: 50 Stories of Recovery. He delivers training on hearing voices and unusual beliefs internationally. He also teaches on the COPE initiative and the Maastricht Interview at Manchester University, as well as offering the Maastricht at Dublin and Cork Universities in Ireland. He co-authored a workbook on childhood trauma called ‘Asking the Questions’ with Paul Hammersley and John Read.

To see a sample video of a presentation by Peter visit: <http://tiny.cc/PBullimore>

NATIONAL PARANOIA NETWORK